WHERE YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS ARE INVOLVED,

INSTEAD, REVIEW THE LAW YOURSELF OR CONSULT YOUR ATTORNEY

GENERAL RULES ABOUT USING THIS CALENDAR

DATES IN THIS CALENDAR ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE BY THE 2006 SESSION OF THE INDIANA GENERAL ASSEMBLY

This publication lists election dates from December 2005 through January 2007. The Indiana Code ("IC") citations included in this publication are current as of November 30, 2005. This calendar was last revised on February 9, 2006.

If an election law specifies a final date for a particular filing, but no final hour of that day, the final hour for filing is NOON, prevailing local time (IC 3-5-4-1). Every date appearing in this calendar must be read as having a noon deadline for the filing, unless another time is specifically stated. See also IC 35-2-24.5 to determine when a "filing" is considered completed.

A legal action required to be taken on a day when state offices are closed may be taken on the next following workday (IC 4-1-2-2).

Whenever the election code requires that a legal action be taken at the office of a circuit court clerk or a political subdivision, and the final day for performing the action falls on a day when the office is not open to conduct public business (or the office is open, but it is a state holiday under IC 1-1-9), the legal action may be performed on the next day that the office is open for public business OR if the action to be performed is receiving a filing, through noon of the next day that the office is open for public business (IC 3-5-4-1.5).

However, this rule does not apply to a legal action that must be taken by an individual or organization which is not a government office or officer for a political subdivision, such as the county chairman of a political party, or a meeting of the county organization of a political party. These legal actions must be taken no later than the date and time specified, even if the deadline falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or other holiday under IC 1-1-9.

A "county voter registration office" refers to a circuit court clerk, a board of registration, the Lake County board of elections and registration, or the Tippecanoe County board of elections and registration (IC 3-5-2-16.2).

In 2006, Indiana voters will elect individuals to serve in the following offices:

1. Federal offices, 1 U.S. Senator elected by the voters of the whole state and 9 United States Representatives elected by voters from congressional districts;
2. State offices (Secretary of State, Auditor of State, and Treasurer of State) all elected by voters statewide;
3. State legislative offices (25 State Senators and 100 State Representatives) elected by voters from a state senate or state representative district;
4. Judges of Circuit, Superior, Probate, and Small Claims Courts elected by voters of the county in various counties depending on their local election schedule;
5. Prosecuting Attorneys elected by voters of the county;
6. County, township, and school board offices, elected by voters in various counties, townships and school corporations depending on their local election schedule;
7. Town council members, town clerk-treasurers and town judges in certain towns which have chosen to stagger terms for town council members, or to elect all town officials during this general election year;
8. Retention of various state appellate judges voted on by voters of the judicial district, and any local public question placed on the ballot in accordance with state statute; and
9. Political party offices, such as precinct committeeman and state convention delegate, elected by members of a major political party voting at a primary election.

CALENDAR DESIGNATIONS

The following designations are used throughout this publication to indicate the nature of certain filing dates and deadlines:

ABS	Indicates dates associated with absentee ballots.
CFA	Indicates dates associated with campaign finance.
CAN	Indicates dates associated with candidates.

FORMS

Where applicable, following the Indiana Code citation at the end of a calendar entry is a reference to the relevant Indiana state form. For example: Wednesday, January 18, 2006 is the first day an individual may file a declaration of candidacy for primary nomination. The state form for this filing is the CAN-2 form.

NOTE: IC 3-5-4-8 provides, in relevant part:

“Except as provided in subsection (e) [which concerns certain voter registration forms]... a person must use the most recent version of the form approved by the [Indiana Election] Commission to comply with [the election law].”

If you are uncertain whether you have the most recent version of an approved form, contact the Indiana Election Division for information.

NOTE: IC 3-5-4-1.7 provides:

“Except as otherwise expressly authorized or required under [the Indiana Election Code], a filing by a person with a commission, the election division, or an election board may not be made by fax or electronic mail.”

There are some exceptions to this general rule involving campaign finance filings. If you are uncertain whether a filing may be made by fax or electronic mail, contact the Indiana Election Division for information.
